

Conference Program 'Designed for Life'

The 2019 Mainstreet SA Conference Program includes a panel discussion and workshop followed by a conference networking dinner featuring the Mainstreet SA Awards on Thursday 10th October, plus a full day session of presentations at Lot Fourteen on Friday 11th October. The two-day program includes international perspectives as well as local success stories and is sure to stimulate robust discussion as we all strive to ensure that our mainstreets are "Designed for Life".

Mainstreet SA would like to extend its thanks to our Conference Partners City of Adelaide and Lot Fourteen:

And our Conference Associates:

For more conference information please visit www.mainstreetsa.com.au

Thursday 10th October

3.00pm	Panel Discussion and Workshop Bradley Forum, Level 5 Hawke Building, Uni SA City West Campus Panellists: David Bailey - City of Adelaide Andrew Wallace - Adelaide West End Association and UniSA Craig Burton - City of Adelaide Akarra Klingberg - City of Unley	Managing Disruption in your Mainstreet Mainstreets are constantly evolving, but on occasion change can be sudden and dramatic. In this session our panelists will discuss mainstreet disruption - working with traders and stakeholders to maximise project buy-in and effective communication strategies to minimize the perception that the mainstreet is closed for business.
6.00pm – 9.30pm	2019 Mainstreet SA Awards Dinner	Published ArtHouse

Friday 11th October

Lecture Theatre in the Eleanor Harrald Building, Lot Fourteen

8.00am	Registrations open
8.50am	Mainstreet SA Chair welcome
9.00am	KEYNOTE ADDRESS	'PROGRESS TO SUCCESS: without means no action,
3.004111	Jean-Luc Calonger	without action, no town centre management'
	TOCEMA Worldwide	Governance & strategic framework, attracting new Town Centre Management Europe	retailers and incentives, with examples from the Town centre Management Larope	Revitalising European Town Centres through Independent Retail Program.
10.00am	Morning Tea/Coffee
10.30am	Panel Discussion	Mainstreets and small business
	Panellists:
		Nowhere are small businesses more essential than in
	David O'Loughlin – City of Prospect	the mainstreets that make our neighbourhoods great.
	Martin Haese - Business SA	This panel will explore how to ignite the small business
	 John Chapman - Small Business Commissioner
	Carin Waterson – Food and Wine Collective	spark in your mainstreet to add character and keeping people coming back.
	Gavin Williams - Matilda Bookshop
11.30am	KEYNOTE ADDRESS	'Big players, small players and squeaky wheels'
11.50aiii	Cheryl Adamson	Explores the value of the BID model in managing the Parnell, New Zealand	bullies and the squeaky wheels in the stakeholder rainen, New Zealand	environment, the healthy tension between BID's and Council including two case studies of Council Controlled Organisations (CCO's).
12.30pm	Lunch	o Barnestons (coc e).
1.30pm	Rachel Walsh	'Creating Lot Fourteen - Adelaide's ideas
	Lot Fourteen / Renewal SA	neighbourhood'
	Lot Fourteen / Kenewar 3A
2.00pm	Panel Discussion	-
2.00pm	Panel Discussion	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the
2.00pm	•	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail
2.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the
2.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's
2.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists:	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a
2.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that
2.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke
2.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke mainstreets. A panel session will allow delegates to
2.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso • Gina Britton - Daisy and Hen	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke mainstreets. A panel session will allow delegates to explore the ideas presented with some of the most
2.00pm 3.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke mainstreets. A panel session will allow delegates to explore the ideas presented with some of the most fascinating retail and property professionals in our market today.
	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso • Gina Britton - Daisy and Hen Afternoon Tea/Coffee KEYNOTE ADDRESS	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke mainstreets. A panel session will allow delegates to explore the ideas presented with some of the most fascinating retail and property professionals in our market today. 'Place Activation - Reclaiming Public Space for Public
3.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso • Gina Britton - Daisy and Hen Afternoon Tea/Coffee KEYNOTE ADDRESS Claire Albaret	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke mainstreets. A panel session will allow delegates to explore the ideas presented with some of the most fascinating retail and property professionals in our market today. 'Place Activation - Reclaiming Public Space for Public Use'
3.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso • Gina Britton - Daisy and Hen Afternoon Tea/Coffee KEYNOTE ADDRESS	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke mainstreets. A panel session will allow delegates to explore the ideas presented with some of the most fascinating retail and property professionals in our market today. 'Place Activation - Reclaiming Public Space for Public Use' Territorial marketing, positioning, and tools to put into
3.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso • Gina Britton - Daisy and Hen Afternoon Tea/Coffee KEYNOTE ADDRESS Claire Albaret	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke mainstreets. A panel session will allow delegates to explore the ideas presented with some of the most fascinating retail and property professionals in our market today. 'Place Activation - Reclaiming Public Space for Public Use' Territorial marketing, positioning, and tools to put into action to turn dull, unused and empty spaces into new
3.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso • Gina Britton - Daisy and Hen Afternoon Tea/Coffee KEYNOTE ADDRESS Claire Albaret	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke mainstreets. A panel session will allow delegates to explore the ideas presented with some of the most fascinating retail and property professionals in our market today. 'Place Activation - Reclaiming Public Space for Public Use' Territorial marketing, positioning, and tools to put into action to turn dull, unused and empty spaces into new destinations for users, featuring European case studies
3.00pm	Panel Discussion Property Council Retail and Mainstreet Committee with panellists: • Julie Thomas – CBRE / ex Renew Adelaide • Con Sciacca - Foodland • Roberto Cardone - Cibo Espresso • Gina Britton - Daisy and Hen Afternoon Tea/Coffee KEYNOTE ADDRESS Claire Albaret	S-M-XL-MS: Learning from Big Retail In a follow up to their recently published research on the status of suburban Mainstreets, The Property Council's Retail and Mainstreets Committee will present a researched thought piece on reconciling the tension that has emerged between big retail and bespoke mainstreets. A panel session will allow delegates to explore the ideas presented with some of the most fascinating retail and property professionals in our market today. 'Place Activation - Reclaiming Public Space for Public Use' Territorial marketing, positioning, and tools to put into action to turn dull, unused and empty spaces into new